

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

JEMAIN Z. DAVIS,

Defendant.

Criminal Action No. 08-15 GMS

MOTION OF THE UNITED STATES FOR A PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

The United States of America, by and through Colm F. Connolly, United States Attorney for the District of Delaware, and Douglas E. McCann, Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Delaware, submits its Motion for a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture in the above-entitled case for the reasons set forth below. A proposed order is submitted with this motion.

1. Defendant has been convicted of the offenses alleged in Counts One and Two of the Felony Information. In the Felony Information, the United States gave notice to the defendant that, in the event of his conviction, he would be required to forfeit to the United States all proceeds derived from the offense alleged in Count One up to $225,284.87.

2. On March 17, 2008, the Court accepted a Memorandum of Plea Agreement where the defendant agreed to the entry of a money judgment against him in the amount of $225,284.87.

3. The United States has seized $6,725.62 from the defendant, which currency is presently the subject of an administrative forfeiture proceeding. Other than this asset, the United States has not, as of this date, identified specific assets that were derived from the violation specified in Count One of the Felony Information, or any other property of the defendant that could be forfeited as a substitute asset in accordance with 21 U.S.C. § 853(p). The United States may request by separate motion leave to take discovery to identify substitute assets.

4. The government expects that the administrative forfeiture of the $6,725.62 will be completed in the near future; therefore, this amount can be subtracted from the money judgment specified in the Memorandum of Plea Agreement. Accordingly, the United States seeks the entry of a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture consisting of a personal money judgment against the defendant in the amount of $218,559.25

5. The entry of a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture in the form of a personal money judgment is specifically authorized by Rule 32.2(b)(1) and (c)(1) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. Such orders of forfeiture are commonplace. See United States v. Voigt, 89 F.3d 1050, 1084, 1088 (3d Cir. 1996) (the Government is entitled to a personal money judgment equal to the amount of money involved in the money laundering offense); United States v. Vampire Nation, 451 F.3d 189, 202 (3d Cir. 2006) (approving of money judgments in criminal cases).

6. Once the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture is entered, the Government may move at any time, pursuant to Rule 32.2(e)(1)(B), to amend the Order to forfeit specific property of the defendant, having a value up to the amount of the money judgment, as substitute assets. See Voigt, 89 F.3d at 1088 (once the Government has obtained a money judgment, it may forfeit defendant's assets in partial satisfaction of that judgment).

WHEREFORE, the United States respectfully requests that this Court enter a preliminary order of forfeiture as proposed in the attached order.

Respectfully submitted,

COLM F. CONNOLLY
United States Attorney

By:
Douglas E. McCann
Assistant United States Attorney
